THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF BLACK MILITARY WOMEN

BROOKLYN CHAPTER

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

The National Association of Black Military Women (NABMW) is an association of military women who are veterans or current members of the United States Armed Forces. The primary purpose of the association is to keep alive the history and legacy of Black women who served our nation with courage and valor in military services of our country. The objectives are to make historical military information relating to Black military women available, to motivate and support Black military women and veterans, and to foster a spirit of camaraderie and goodwill through community service.

Note: Associate Membership is for any non-military person willing to support the objectives of this association. It does not include the right to make motions, vote, or hold elected office. National membership is required to be in good standing within the Brooklyn chapter.
